Did you know?

- The magic numbers for potential loss of a Grand Guardian Council
  - Less than 70 Bethel members
  - If membership less than 70 but there are 4 or more chartered bethels, a Jurisdictional Guardian Council may be formed at the discretion of the Supreme Guardian.
- A Grand Guardian Council may only be reinstated with at least 5 chartered Bethels and 140 or more members.

What happens to the stuff?

- Paraphernalia becomes property of the SGC. If a JGC is formed, the paraphernalia becomes the property of the JGC.
- All funds designated as Educational Funds become part of the SGC Educational Fund.
- All funds designated as Promotional Funds become part of the SGC Promotional Fund.
- All other funds are distributed to the remaining open bethels, prorated according to membership.
- If no remaining bethels, all remaining funds become property of the SGC.
